

Muddy Waters, Double Trouble

Sitting in my window, I'm looking out at the rain
I got troubles, nothing to ease my worried mind
I got double troubles,
I just can't talk for crying

My first woman she love me, and I love her too
When she was living, I could tell she was so true
I got troubles, nothing to ease my worried mind
I got double troubles, I just can't talk for crying

(Well, alright)

My woman she fooled me, and she made me blue
When she left me, I thought that she was so true
I got troubles, nothing to ease my worried mind
I got double troubles, I just can't talk for crying
