Mudhoney, Checkout Time (Alt. Version)

He checked out
Gone for good
He checked out
Without a doubt
Like a regular guy
Like you and me
Unfinished business

His too small voice
He died in his head
No one else comes here
When it told him loud and clear
It's check-out time
It's check-out time

He was always good
At following directions
He ran them out till the end of the line
He dead but he was tough
Step by step

He never wondered enough
Might get wrong it's voice he heard
Was a voice of a liar
He took it in stride
They told him
It's check out time

Check-out time
Check-out time
Check-out time
Check-out time
