Mudhoney, Thirteenth Floor Opening

If I try I could fly right through that window
If I try I could fly right through that window
Just can't find my way to the door

When I land I know I will not be injured
When I land I know I will not be injured
There's no way that I can hurt any more

Got an open mind
Up on the thirteenth floor

Got an open heart
Up on the thirteenth floor

Found an open window
Up on the thirteenth floor

Everything's wide open - oh
On the thirteenth floor
