Mudmen, Not My Mistake

If you can hate, then we can live behind borders For God sake, don't put a price on this water Alleviate, and stop making things harder For God sake, you can lean on my shoulder

If you can pray, we might have understanding Some other day, if we stop this pretending You're not alone; I can see where you're landing A broken bone, is the result on not bending

Hey, Don't walk away stop falling, looking for a friend It's not my, not my mistake Hey, Unlock your mind stop crawling, burning out again It's not my (Hold Mistake)

If you walk away, cuz things got too demanding You can't say, that your use is not worth defending I don't know if you get what I'm saying Don't be the one, with a start but no ending

Chorus

MUSIC & amp; SOLO

If you can pray, we may have understanding Some other day, if we stop this pretending You're not alone; I can see where you're landing A broken bone, is the result on not bending

Chorus Out
