

Mudmen, Saturday

monday you're paranoid tuesday you try to avoid wednesday you dont have a clue thursday they laughin at you thank god its friday
thank god its friday

the means saturday is on the way through the confusion i'll fade away you know i'll give it a shot i'll tear my way through saturday

monday they feast on your heart tuesday you're playing your part wednesday it gets harder to scream thursday they crush all your dreams thank go its friday
thank god it's friday

monday you roll the dice tuesday you fall through the ice wednesday you're coming to terms thursday the nightmare returns
thank god its friday
thank god its friday
