

Mudvayne, The Hate In Me

Lend me your children to borrow
I just need to send them away
Long eyes and tears of sorrow
I promise I'll keep them safe
So sorry it didn't work out
You believed the liar in me
My God My love My life
My World My loss My rage
Agnostic for the greater good
When the good things seem to be few and far between Conscious loss of conscience
Packed the body on ice just to keep it numb
Blame some things on the past
Threw away everything that I had
Unraveling for the last time, stepping out of my skin
Cast in Armor
The hate in me, feeling so empty
The guilt I swallow
Carve the line, skin the face
Stare through me
We'll leave you hollow
Hollow
Assembly of the militant
What are you in our game
Order through anarchy
Eradicate the power's law
Hope's a thing of the past
Threw away everything that I had
The hammer falls
The hate in me, feeling empty
The guilt I swallow
Carve the line, skin the face
Stare through me
We'll leave you hollow
Hollow
Wounded, having a loss of feeling
So dead my heart, my life has been ruined
Lost in an instant
Saw red in my eyes
The hate in me, so consuming
The lives we swallow
To the front line, mirror's engaged
Scope's on me
And leaves me hollow
Harvest children
Harvest children
Harvest children
Harvest children
Harvest children
Harvest children
My God My Love My Life
My One My Loss My Grave
