

MugShot, The Cure Is Knowledge

On my own
I never wanna be wanna be
On my own
I never honestly thought Id be
On my own
On my own
Some times the rain wont stop
Still I can see
I can breath
I can feel myself staying afloat
Yeah Im staying afloat
She says her pain wont stop
Still I can smile other while
Then it tries
Then it tries to pull me under
I wont go under
It makes me stronger
Knowing Im not
On my own
I never wanna be wanna be
On my own
I never honestly thought Id be
On my own
On my own
While its the same old struggle
That Ive been told that we grow
The most in times like these ones
So I must be growing
So if your pain wont stop
Well you just smile other while
Then it tries
Then it tires to pull you under
It make you stronger
You sit here thinking
That all this has to be linked
Towards something
Or could this all come
Crashing down
But you will never be
Never be
On your own
Youll never be never be
On your own
Youll never be never be
On your own
On your own
