

Mumford & Sons, Believe

You make call it in this evening
But you've only lost the knife
Preset all your pretty feelings
May they comfort you tonight
And I'm climbing over something
And I'm running through these halls

I don't even know if I believe
I don't even know if I believe
I don't even know if I believe
Everything you're trying to say to me

I had the strangest feeling
Your world's not all it seems
So tired of misconceiving
What else this could've been
I don't even know if I believe
I don't even know if I believe
I don't even know if I believe
Everything you're trying to say to me

So open up my eyes, tell me I'm a liar
This is never gonna go our way
If I'm gonna have to guess what's on your mind
Oh say something, say something
Something like you love me
Unless you wanna move away, from the noise of this place?

I don't even know if I believe
I don't even know if I believe
I don't even know if I wanna believe
Anything you're trying to say to me

So open up my eyes, tell me I'm a liar
This is never gonna go our way
If I'm gonna have to guess what's on your mind
So open up my eyes, tell me I'm a liar
This is never gonna go our way
If I'm gonna have to guess what's on your mind
