

Mumm-Ra, What Would Steve Do?

And when we got there
I wasn't sure
Had the world span a little more than i had expected when we set out had I got wiser overnight somehow

It was a great day when it changed
I lost my conscience on a well lit stage And though the whole world didn't change nothing mattered in the same way

oooh you are the best thing
oooh you just changed everything

Fine consider this the moment I figured you would change my life
but don't think there'll be a next time.

Of course I know that This can't go well
And I should leave this I should let time tell
But every time I give you up I get a phonecall
you are my first love

oooh you are the best thing

figured you would change my life
but don't think there'll be a next time
