

Mungo Jerry, Livin Aint Easy

Livin' ain't easy, now your baby's said goodbye,
Livin' ain't easy, when all you do is cry,
She said goodbye, you wanna die, it's no lie,
Livin' ain't easy, now your baby's gone away,
Livin' ain't easy when will she come back and stay?
You'll find a way, maybe you'll get her to come back and stay,

Chorus:

You dreamed that you were through, and now your dreams come true,
How can I find a way to get her off my mind,
You think that she'll come back, it ain't in the bag

Maybe tomorrow things will be alright,
No need for sorrow, there's no need to cry,
She said goodbye, you want to get her, it's no lie,

Repeat Chorus:

Maybe tomorrow it's all gonna be alright,
No need for sorrow there's no need to cry,
You'll be alright, maybe you'll get her,
And she'll stay the night
