

Murder By Death, The Desert Is On Fire

I'll leave a trail of fire across this desert
Just to see the desperation in your eyes

You think you've suffered
Well you ain't seen shit yet
The pain won't set in for a long long time
I've fought off angels with my hands behind my back
I've set the heavens all on fire

So sleep in the fallout shelter tonight one and all
And wrap the children up real tight
Stop the bleedin' before it starts
