

Murder City Devils, I Drank The Wine

We made a deal in the car
You stay angry, I'll feel nothing at all
And you gave me your heart
And I buried my heart
I'll never trust myself
I'll never trust myself again

I got one foot in the van
And I don't expect you
To wear a flower in your hair
I got my bags in the van
And I don't expect you
To wear a flower in your hair

We made a deal in the car
You stay angry
I'll feel nothing at all
And you gave me
Your heart
And I buried
And I buried my heart
And I buried my heart
I'll never trust myself
I'll never trust myself again
We made a deal in the car
You stay angry
I'll feel nothing at all
And you gave me
Your heart
And I buried
And I buried my heart
And I buried my heart

I drank the wine
And I threw away the rose
Threw away the rose

I'm leaving for good
My bags are in the van
And I don't expect
A kiss goodbye
A kiss goodbye

We made a deal in the car
You stay angry
I'll feel nothing at all
And I buried
And I buried my heart
