Muse, Pink Ego Box

It's gonna be ok Can't afford another day At 50 bytes per second

I've never seen your face I've never heard your voice

But I think I like it When you instant message me With a promise I can feel it I can tell you're gonna be Just like me

My eyes are gonna strain My heart is feeling pain At 50 beats per second

I've never seen your eyes I've never heard your lies

But I think I like it
When you instant message me
With a promise
I can feel it
I can tell you're gonna be
Just like me
Just like me

You tell You tell You turn on me
