

Mushroomhead, Eternal

Face the day embrace the pain
Wage my war internal
Save my soul eternal

Reach out for redemption it bites the hand that needs
Neglect becomes rejection the silence sounds retreat

I can't believe
It's the last time
Anything you say

Chained to the past ride the wings of despair
Corroded and rusted trust beyond repair
In this triumph of the wills I won't be overrun
The pride that is instilled cannot be overcome

I can't believe
It's the last time
Anything you say
It's the last time that I'll try today

I can't believe
It's the last time
Anything you say
That I'll fall down
It's the last time
It's the last time
That I'll try today
Break it all down
