

Mushroomhead, Tattoo (Giving It All Up For Love)

Testing my faith again
Breaking the will of man

Deny all my saviors
No answers for prayers

Im all alone no turning back this time

Trapped in a cell that denies
Oppose the rise

Acts of free thought free the mind

Seek no redemption
My hates on a mission

Find the one way destruct inside

Sunshine moonlight
Stars soar in a violent sky

Condemning life with no meaning

Fell so question the thoughts
That imply stand arise

Seeds of hatred boil deep inside
My will has grown weak
To find the path that i seek

Losing my way on a path of destruction

Realease me

Feel so cold
