

Music Video, Somewhere Between Blue And Gray

Kind of lost myself today
At a loss for words to say

And into me, the needles fly
As moving motion pictures die
It's quite an unfamiliar cry
The one you can't explain why

It'll all just fade away and I'm a tired old cliché
It'll all just fade away one day
Tomorrow just might be okay

Well I thought I lost my way
Somewhere between blue and gray
