

Musiq, Mary Go Round

Verse 1: Maybe my mind is playing tricks on me but I could've sworn That the kiss that was meant truly for me is leaving me torn How can love be so kind and so gentle and then turn and be so cold; Why must my arms feel so empty for what my heart still holds

Hook: Mary how could you go, around and hurt me so I try so hard to please you baby but I just cant seem to baby.

Mary how could you go, around and hurt me so I try so hard to please you baby but I just
cant seem to baby

Verse 2: Was there something I could've done to change this outcome here, As if I blink my eyes and suddenly she up and disappeared. How can love escape your grasp without you ever letting go, and until she returns to my offer I may never know

Hook: Mary how could you go, around and hurt me so I try so hard to please you baby but I just cant seem to baby(repeat)
