

Musiq Soulchild, Backagain

[Intro]

Yes...Oh...I really thought it was over baby
But uh, I guess not, oh
Yeah, but its cool, It's all love uhh, ey, but

[Verse 1]

How can I, even think, after you, made a scene
You and me, could again like nothing happened
Oh and it's kinda hard, to forget what you said when you left out that door, said you don't Love me no more

[Pre-Chorus]

And now you wanna (sit and talk) but you don't really (wanna talk), you just wanna see if you
Can get things back the way they used to
You wanted change so you just (walked out)
But your new love didn't (work out)
So, now you think you can just come back when you want

[Chorus]

I thought it was over
But here you come back again
Welcome back, Welcome back, Welcome back
I thought it was over
But here you come back again
Welcome back, Welcome back, Welcome back

[Verse 2]

I thought that I had it all figured out
Had it all planned, I thought there was gonna be a happy ending
But you chose, to let go, don't you know, once you leave, there ain't no baby please can we Just go somewhere to be alone

[Pre-Chorus]

(and talk) but I don't really (wanna talk)
Cause you just wanna see if you can get things back the way they used to
You wanted change so you just (walked out)
But your new love didn't (work out)
So, now you think you can just come back when you want

[Chorus]

I thought it was over
But here you come back again
Welcome back, Welcome back, Welcome back yeah
I thought it was over
But here you come back again
Welcome back, Welcome back, Welcome back

[Bridge]

It's nice to know that, you been thinking bout the love we once had but getting over you was Hard cause i thought there was nothing left for us now you say you having second thoughts

[Chorus]

I thought it was over
But here you come back again
Welcome back, Welcome back, Welcome back
I thought it was over
But here you come back again

But here you come back again
