

Musiq, Whereareyougoing

"whereareyougoing"

Oh baby, can I change my mind, long ago you left me you think I would have listened, when you said to me to get my life together or you would leave but now that you're gone the story begins it's the ending of the end of and endless and looking back I was bringing you down but now I'm changing my life you said when I make a change I could stop by now I'm back and I can't live without you

Chorus

If you can't have the one you love then where are you going in your life if you can't have the person in your life then where are you headed in your life

I know you still remember all of the times I have you waiting by the telephone and never came on the line but now I got myself together and finally understand this time I'll take your heart in the palm of my hand

looking back I was bringing you down' but now I'm changing my song you said when I make a change I could come on back home now I'm back and I can't live without you no

girl it's time I tell you something and it might sound strange like the weather everyday it's true that people change you gotta help me run this race before I pass us by I think its time we try this love again just more time
