Mustasch, Daybreaker

I know this guy I haven't told about before He's always pissed You can find him on the floor He's not allright but wants to be respected

He said

This is my life and I am free of waste my time Up to now the alcohol was the best I found

Daybreaker, you'll make it If you try

And his girlfriend seem to stand the misery She should be moving on if you are asking me It's quite allright, but what he needs

Daybreaker, don't break her Daybreaker, heartbreaker Daybreaker, don't break her If you can

This is the final stand before I break away I do believe it's time for me to go insane I feel allright, I want to be

Daybreaker
