I saw an angel
I can tell you I was far from home
Through stormy weather
I've been misled but I was never gone
I saw this angel
The queen of diamonds almost blew my mind away
She tried to give it all just give it all to me

Right out of the blue
She'll come for you too
Right out of the blue
The angel of truth

Never say never
Look out and see what's coming around the bend
From bad to better
Who knows what it will come to in the end
Never say never
The queen of diamonds almost blew my mind away
She tried to give it all just give it all to me
