

Mute Math, Clockwork

Time is a thief (?) with a loaded gun
The sky runs buy while the days are gone
The night falls prey to another sun
All like clockwork they wont stop
They wont stop x 3
Dont stand still, all the leaves are grown (?)
The world keeps spinning just to wear us down
Say what you must while were still around
The days go to sleep but they wont stop
They wont stop x 3
We never should allow another sun to set
On all the words that we have held so long
I know we'd rather sort it out once tomorrow comes
But tomorrow already happened
Time is a thief (?) with a loaded gun
The sky runs buy while the days are gone
The night falls prey to another sun
The days go to sleep but they wont stop, no
We never should allow another sun to set
On all the words that we have held so long
I know wed rather sort it out once tomorrow comes
But tomorrow already happened
Tomorrow x 3
We can wait for the sunrise
To say what should matter
We'll know by tomorrow
But tomorrow, tomorrow just happened
Today we need to make the most of love
Tomorrow we don't have a choice
All we ever get control of is now
x 2
I know wed rather sort it out once tomorrow comes
But tomorrow already happened
Woah
I know wed rather sort it out once tomorrow comes
But tomorrow already happened
