

MuteMath, Spotlight

All Ive left to say now
You knocked all your wind out
You just tried too hard and you froze
I know, I know
What do you say?
What do you say?

Chorus:

Just take a fall
Youre one of us
The spotlight is on
Oh, the spotlight is on
Oh!

You know Ive been your fighting to hold
Be the one thing youve got to let go
When you feel the war cannot be won
Coming back to try what cant be done
gonna say say out that you dont care
Now is there nothing like that inside of you anywhere

Chorus:

Just take a fall
Youre one of us
The spotlight is on
Oh, the spotlight is on
Oh!

Because everyone would rather watch you fall

And we all

And we all (all in trouble)

Just take a fall (all in trouble)

Youre one of us

The spotlight is on

Oh, the spotlight is on

Just take a fall

Now youre one of us

Now youre, oh (x3)

Now youre one of us

Now youre, oh (x2)

Now youre one of us

Oh, the spotlight is on
