

MX Griggs, Deep and Hard

Hot off the heels of call of duty 2,
The infinity ward team has been developing call of duty 4: modern warfare we're making it more sophisticated for a deeper call of duty experience.
Variety is the next big thing for us, we're going deep and we're going hard.
The weak man may be careful not to soil himself when he plays this game.
Enter the mind in time you'll find my lines
Combine intertwine underlined rhyme divine
No Hind can go against me 249 lift you swiftly
Frontline's in here with me
Think I'm lying? come and get me
Sgt. Griggs reporting for duty roger
Some say this belong in a movie
But this the 3rd installment
Infinity Ward shit
Don't soil your drawers 'cause it's deep and it's hard bitch
Ready for action, .50 cals start to clapping
4 horsemen kicking a Rerun asking "What's happening?"
Too late for all that flapping
Out the gates with autos packed in
This one's for MacMillian, 15 years you had relaxing
Now it's time to settle the score
We ready for War, SAS on board, my Tribe Award Tour
