

MxPx, Broken Hearts Disease

I admit it I'm a jerk and I'm taking all the blame.
I'll take it like a man, I'll run into the flames.
I ask, I plead, I beg, I need.

Don't let me die of broken hearts disease.
Don't let me down, I'm begging darling please.

Nothing's ever worth all the pain I always cause.
I do the dumbest things then try to win back your applause.
I plead, I cry, You said goodbye.

Don't let me die of broken hearts disease.
Don't let me down, I'm begging darling please.

Here lies my legacy, all my hopes and dreams, for everyone to see.
Here lies my defeated heart, fighting this disease, for everyone to see.
For everyone to see.

I admit it I'm a jerk and I've ruined both our lives.
Now I spend my days trying to analyze,
Where I went wrong and wrote this song.

Don't let me die of broken hearts disease.
Don't let me down, I'm begging darling please.

Don't make me cry, I'm down here on my knees.
Don't let me die of broken hearts disease.
