

MxPx, Correct Me If I'm Wrong

Did you forget what's important in you life?
Somewhat confused, everthing is going wrong
Do you regret the decisions that you've made?
I don't expect a second chance to come along You already found the book with all the answers to all your questions so take a closer look You're in the turn land and I'm the intersection Did you forget when you wakled out of my room to turn off the light and say goodnight your answer's coming soon
I will admit in the end I'll be O.K.
I think it safe to say, you don't know If we're better off this way
Please don't forget how to laugh out loud
And be proud of yourself
I know you'll do what's right for you
