

MxPx, Lifetime Enlightenment

you want something you take it can't hide from God can't fake it he knows your heart he knows mine you've only got a lifetime have you no integrity? your wasted mind, your apathy same old high school mystery you're too dumb & blind to see you've already made up your mind you don't care you don't wanna find the truth will hit you like cement too bad too sad it's too late for your enlightenment
