

MxPx, Think Twice

it tears me apart inside i know think twice it tears me apart inside i know i do it too you can run but you can't hide deep down i find you so it seems it's no big deal we don't think about it much a pain created a pain that's real i've got the scars to prove it when we tear each other down what's our intentions? it's always more than just a joke so let's try to think twice-so think twice! it's true we are a brotherhood and we all know it bonded by the son of God is how we live-so think twice!
