

My American Heart, Last Goodbye

we came to our conclusions.
we came to what we thought would never end.
your second thought, my second guess.
and after all that, you got your mess.

spend my life just figuring out why i left.
and now i'm getting older.
so this is your last goodbye.

what do you expect when you expect the worst?
it's not what i wanted.
i thought you were her, worth every word i said.
worth every word that i said.

well now i'm getting older.

and i'm not coming back.
say goodbye. say goodbye.
so this is your last...
