

My Awesome Mixtape, The Saint Valentines Day

Shiny happy people love each other those blue and sad get close one to another in a sort of manic depressive way that makes my joy collapse in a way and makes my nerves shut up in a way "It's just a matter of time we wait and see"
Shiny happy people love each other
those blue and sad get close one to another we're so lonely...

Here we are Passing shapes in search of time
Time to spend in half a life, we're so shy...
Here we are
Passing shapes in search of time
Time to spend in half a life
Keep the flow instead of following lines...
