

My Brightest Diamond, Apples

sometimes in the springtime i like to see the apple blossoms with you sometimes in the winter i like to see the snow falling with you once we took apples from my grandfathers tree but i had nowhere to plant the seed so we baked them with sugar and we ate them sometimes on saturdays when its raining we do laundry especially then i like to watch you fold so carefully the clothes especially then i like to watch you move your fingers slow
