

My Brightest Diamond, Goodbye Forever

oh to lose by fire by flame this old feeling insignificance

then i can hear you brighter than the stars your voice is a razor blade i can see you shining through the sun you're so mysterious lose the hold as i throw this with a goodbye forever fear of exposure

your touch is lightning i can feel you prickling like a thousand shark teeth prickling like a thousand shark teeth closer to me come closer to me

come closer to me still
