

My Dying Bride, Der Überlebende

I'm alive, I'm alive and I'm bleeding for everyone pull me from this mire hold me till I'm home [...] me by the fire
I believe in all of me so I'll always live on I have seen them
I have watched them all fall
I have been them
I have watched myself crawl but I'm alive, I'm alive and I'll be singing for everyone did you see them did you watch us all fall did you save them no you watched as we died will you believe in me because sometimes we never die
