My Dying Bride, Transcending (Into The Exquisite

If I live you will be sorry I have a thousand forms If I live you will be sorry Uninjured by your tongue

If I live you will be sorry I have a thousand forms If I live you will be sorry Uninjured by your tongue

We've lived with our suffering But now...?

If I live you will be sorry I have a thousand forms If I live you will be sorry I'm working to ensnare you

My desire Turn loose the swans

If I live you will be sorry I have a thousand forms If I live you will be sorry I'm working to ensnare you
