

My Former Self, Takeover

This burden on my back is
Way too heavy to carry
I swear this life isn't at all
What it's cracked up to be
I hear your hurtful words in stereo
Surprisingly it's not you, it's me

So help me to take over
My life

Listen up, I won't say it twice
This is the all-time great war
That is between wrong and right
I hear your hurtful words and
Still I know I'll take over my life
So give me time to grow

So help me to take over

Listen up, I won't say it twice
This is between wrong and right
I hear your words and still I know
I'll takeover my life
So give me time to grow

I need to break free
So will you help me?

To break free
