

My Fortunate Downfall, After Everything I've Done

i tried no, it's not right everytime we got in a fight after all is said and all is done i know you have got to be the one and i know it'll show everytime you have to go away

it's all been done
what's passed is past
but i can change it from here
i turned away from You,
i was so selfish
but You're still there, You're still there for me...

i'm so lost
i'm at a loss of words to say but the highest cost wasn't losing you it was losing Him now i'm crawling back to where i began and i don't know where to go but i'm trusting Him

'cause He will show the way

i turned away from You,
but You're still there, You're still there for me...

we tried,
got in a fight everything will be alright

i turned away from You,
but You're still there,
You're still there for me...
