

My Friend Stephanie, I Love Him

This is crazy
I normally dont act like this
Its different for me
I think im head over heels in love
But i dont know how I dont know how he can...

(chorus)

How can he find how i feel
I cant tell him myself
My friends just laugh
They say its just a crush
but they...
but they dont know how i feel

Whats wrong with my lips
how can i not tell him how i FEEEEEL!!!

im feeling presurded
cant take my pills
i need him
i want him
HOW CAN I LIVE!

How can he find how i feel
I cant tell him myself
My friends just laugh
but they...
but they dont know how i feel

Im just too scared my lips start to shake i just cant feel real i feel fake i need to love
i need him now
come on i can just tell him how i feel!

I start to follow him home he thinks its just a cowincidence how can he be so silly!
