

My Friend Steve, Newest Superhero

You're playing with the newest superhero that I have found
He can hold his breath longer than Aquaman
He's more beautiful than Superman
Hey, I can change the world
Hey, I can change the world

How quickly we forget when we're on to better things
In a hangar there's a jet I'm gonna sleep upon its wings
When I wake up I'll be flying, someday so will you
How quickly we forget when there's better things to do

I wish that I were Roman, just to have a Roman feast
To be fed grapes by pretty women while lying at their feet
I would try to be smooth
I would try to be smooth

You're playing with the newest superhero that I have found
He's gonna drive your Superman straight into the ground

(I'm the newest superhero)
Hey, I can change the world
(I'm the newest superhero)
Hey, I can change the world
