

My future lies, Kissing you in the driveway

Your arms around my neck Im holding you so tight
And am I dreaming, will you wake me if Im right
Your lips around my tongue and I am calling
Will you catch me falling, this is the right time
For kissing you in the Driveway, Kissing you right through the night
Youre everything I dream about, youre everything I scream about Kissing you in the Driveway, Kissing you right through the night
I wanna be with you all alone, Ill wait until your dad comes home
Kissing you in the Driveway
Turn out the lights and hold my hand, youre breathing and I still think Im dreaming, wake me if Im right
Your ears are soft I whisper that I love you
Lets just run away, lets just hide and run away
Chorus
Do you wonder if in twenty years this song will even count
Will you remember kissing me under the stars
Will you look back, pick up a photograph and hide inside your room
And think of all the simple times
