

My Hotel Year, Key Exchange

i'm sorry for calling to leave this message you probably got the first one my face was hypnotized from the first time you arrived impressions gone up in smoke i wondered if you'd come over here custom galleries full of pictured things like your picture-perfect make-up to catch the attention you caught long ago i wish it could begin now but we're miles from starting out so what are you really after? this time i know what you're thinking of
