

Mya, Little 2 Much Little 2 Late

wasnt it you who left,
when i needed you,
wasnt it you who kept thinkin i would be the fool, then i heard over you, so bad wasnt it you who said you didnt want my love now you want my love babe well its a little to much

a little to late
dont get another chance
with my heart that you break
gave you my trust
you just threw that trust away cant get back to my heart oh baby cant get back to my heart wasnt it me who said you'd regret that day, that day walk you walked out that door and threw my love away said you want me back some day so bad wasnt it you who said you didnt want my love now you want one more chance but its a little to much

no no no
no matter what you do it wont be enough for you the door is closed forever for my love so theres no need to waste your time you aint wastin mine no more no

cos its a little to much

i needed you
