

Myriads, Inside

[Music and Lyrics: Alexander Twiss and Mona Undheim Skottene]

As I look inside my self,
I long to find a way
I close my eyes;
still images are streaming
To disclose the core of my self,
I long to find a way
I close my mind
but still the thoughts are floating

Inside of me
I listen to a silent sound behind my memories
I am striving to see inside of me
To solve my bewilderment and let it flow like energy Revealing my personality

The path to my thoughts and my soul
This maze is leading me
Inside of me
I am yearning to perceive myself

I am embraced with my own intelligence
That obstructs me
From finding the sanctum
