

Mysteries Of Life, Your Face Betrays You

Your face betrays you every time
Shows what you try to hide
Your face betrays you every time
I see right through you
Your face betrays you
I see right through you
Your face betrays you

The clock was ticking and you turn away
Your first offense is fake
This doesn't happen to me every day
I can't turn away

I look into your eyes
The factor simplifies
You hate your darker side
But it's the darkness that's reflecting the light

Your face betrays you every time
Shows what you try to hide
Your face betrays you every time
And I see right through you
Your face betrays you
I see right through
Your face betrays you

Oh, I look into your eyes
The factor simplifies
You hate your darker side
But it's the darkness that's reflecting the light

Your face betrays you every time
Shows what you try to hide
Your face betrays you every time
And I see right through you
Your face betrays you
I see right through you
Your face betrays you

The clock is ticking
The clock is ticking

Your face betrays you
Your face betrays you
Your face betrays you
