

Mystic Circle, Notrum - The Sword Of Might

In a castle of Xanten he lived the king of the Netherlands with his wife and son who's name was Siegfried his greatest wish was to go out and have adventure and war it was so boring for him a hero he wanted to be His father wants him to aduce knightinnes virtues but all his strenght and will could not blind from false behaviour so he sende him out to a smith called Mimer the smith should make him a man and a future king Father of Siegfried (Sigmund) speaks:
"My son you go with master Mimer he should treat you like a common apprentice and such hard work I hope will quit you and form your mind to a bride knight." and in the dark of the force where he only heard hammer and anvil many stories where told about a dragons called Fafnir.
Siegfried speaks:
"No one has conquest this dragon so far it menaces the whole land but I will go out and defeat him and then I have my fathers bright." In the night he made a sword harder than the steal an armour and a shield to stand against the evil with the strenght of the bear and broudly like a knight he walked in that night away from master Mimer then he stood in the darkness put on his glamorous armour with only one thought in his mind to defeat the old dragon a vision of the great king he had in that night now he's in the world of great adventures and war Suddenly he heard a noise someone has followed him and as he looked behind him a knife shines in the night someone from the smith would killed him from behind but with his sword he turned up his head and he went to the dragonstone
