

Mystic Prophecy, Set the World on Fire

Suffocated hate parade
The visionary future carnage
Burning down the barriers of low
No surrender, blood will flow

Shoot them down into the core
Welcome in a nightmare war
With his lies, sacrifice
Youth and children, future dies

Burning down the state of terror
Soul demise completely error

Scream out loud, what you know
The sun goes down for false messiahs
Set the world on fire
Never let them bring you down
Below six feet underground
Politicians, fucking liars
Set the world on fire

Welcome in the show of lies
The dead will roll the dice
Politicians, sick illusions
Evil TV, revolution

Rolling fire over the land
Together with pride we stand
In his head, the Judas thorn
Hatred nation, like a storm

Burning down the state of terror
Soul demise completely error

Scream out loud what you know
The sun goes down for false messiah
Set the world on fire
Never let them bring you down
Below six feet under ground
Politicians, fucking liars
Set the world on fire
