

Mystic Prophecy, To Hell and Back

Every day I try to find the answer
The answer deep in my thoughts and in my mind

My salvation I try to find
To heal my soul forever
I try to remember
The good time we have

Hand in hand everywhere over the land
Promised forever love... forever bent
'til the end of my days
For you now here I stand

Why don't you know, how I feel?
Oh, why don't you know?

One day will come and take my inner fears
Some days I wish I will disappear
Every night in my dreams
I will paint in black
To hell and back

One day will take my sorrows and my tears
From the darkness, I will ever disappear
Every night in my dreams
I will paint in black
To hell and back

I never forget these blackened days
The day that we losing our way
This cold December day
Everything you betrayed
Like a butterfly you're flying away

Was your promise words only a lie?
Baby, my love... for you... never die!

One day will come back
To hell and back
Yeaah!
