Chorus: repeat 2X

(singers) Momma life ain't cool (Master P) Ain't no woman like my momma (singers) Tell me what would I do without you (Master P) Ain't no woman like my momma

(Mystikal)

I thank God, for keeping you strong, but you keep me strong Things'd be different if, momma wasn't home Who gon' fix the grits and eggs and smoked sausage Teach me and love me and raise me and watch me Who gon' lift my spirits when I get sad? Discipline me when I need a stain whip on my ass I was seven years old when I lost dad Trying to accept the fact but I was too young to understand Who gon' take the slack and carry the load? Make ends meet while in the grocery stores? Who's the single parent to me and my big sister that had me happy on my birthday and merry at Christmas? Who took care of us, did everything for us? Stood by and didn't leave, just because we was yours, she was ours Who was still sweet when everything went sour? You mom!

Chorus

(Silkk the Shocker)
I couldn't imagine gettin this far, without you
Even when the bills was due, you found a way to come through
Even though we didn't have money, we seemed rich
We had each other me and my sisters and brothers, forget the other shit
You was side by side when I was sick
Early in the morning, cooking eggs and grits
You was the first one up, but you was the last one sleepin
Made sure we had somethin to eat, last one to eatin
Couldn't live our life for us so, let us know
Wanted to tell us, but you had to just, let us grow
Gettin older now, soon have to, let us go
We was goin through some things momma but you never, let it show
And I only get one of you so I, cherish the times
Didn't know how to tell you how much you meant to me

So I wrote that line So wherever you at, I hope you doin fine You did so much for me then, I'll do the same for you in time
