

N-DUBZ, Feva Las Vegas

Its n-dubz, n-dubz, what! Yeah!
Its n-dubz, n-dubz
Its n-dubz, n-dubz, what!

I should of new this from the start
That if we blow, all these people
And so called friends who, I ain't spoken to in years
They got the nerve to call me up and waste my time
I don't need you for nothing
So come the fuck up off my life

I live my life on stages, fever Las Vegas
Sylvester Stallone in it, any chick I'm boning it, I'm un-chip alluring it
We do this all ourselves, from the productions, the videos and everything else
See the buzz that we created was rare, two independent releases from better not to I swear
But I presume it's the tune with the chair that caused the havoc off all of these labels talking bout w
About man that's trying to buy my publishing for only 80 grand
I might act like a boy, but I have the mind of a man
Straight game, see shit can give you a false high
When you think you speaking to me you might be screaming in my eye...

Success causes jealousy
It can turn your best friend into your enemy
All I know
I believe in what I do
I can live without you
You mother fuckers that try to suck me dry...

I should of new this from the start
That if we blow, all these people
And so called friends who, I ain't spoken to in years
They got the nerve to call me up and waste my time
I don't need you for nothing
So come the fuck up off my life

I ain't looking to be another one hit wonder
Have one track in the charts, but the fame don't last
Now we looking to sell units
So when you hear pussycat dolls and g-unit, you will also hear n-dubz music
Been performing on stages, ever since we were 13
So there ain't no one gonna tell us that we ain't put the work in
I'm keen, busting my fucking ass talking like I'm a thing for this dream
N-dubz is my team, it weren't an over night thing
From PC's overloading, to problems that we couldn't be solving
One day before a mix was due there's no going home
In 24 hours in a studs eating microwave foods
Getting pranks of these dudes, I can't be asked for these youths

Success causes jealousy
It can turn your best friend into your enemy
All I know
I believe in what I do
I can live without you
You mother fuckers that try to suck me dry...

I should of new this from the start

And so called friends who, I ain't spoken to in years
They got the nerve to call me up and waste my time
I don't need you for nothing
So come the fuck up off my life

Let's take a look at the situation, and my life, where it's gone
Now everybody wants a piece of me

Tryna claim a right to the person I've become
That so called perfect image that you, see on your TV screen
That discusses the realty that messed up bitch you don't see
And as for all the men who want a piece of the pie
You really think I don't know all the reasons among your mind
It takes more than cheap talk to win my heart
So tell me where the hell were you before all this shit locked up

I should of new this from the start
That if we blow, all these people
And so called friends who, I ain't spoken to in years
They got the nerve to call me up and waste my time
I don't need you for nothing
