

N-DUBZ, Strong Again

Ha Ha Ha Ha
N-Dubz, N-Dubz
Na na nai
Ha ha
ha ha ha

One day i had to punch up,
This one youte for trying make a fool of me,
In my Hood there's only so many opportunites.
Look, I carry a tool for my Pride and Jewellery,
Now i find myself stuck serving the Community.
See me i made a change, I didn't expect no fame.
We came from practically nuttin'
Two thousands screaming our name
A- List, Play-list.
Even my mums famous.
I would do anythin' for some source stadium status.
See the thing about life is that it's,
It's just too short, Leave the best behind and
Only then you'll find there's more to life that you first though.
Coz I,
I never ever, ever, ever though that it would ever get better.
Coz I,
I never ever, ever, ever though that it would ever get better.
See I,
I never ever, ever, ever though that i could face this weather,
But life, it will only get better, trust me it will only get better.

Ha, ha, ha, ha
ha, ha, ha, ha...

Na, na nai
haa hey...

Goin' back to when i was young,
And i..
Treated life like it would never end, but then i grew up.
Got a little clued up, Then N-Dubz blew up,
Finally on my way.

Coz if you knew where i come from,
You would understand why i sing this song
It's are changa.

Yeah, I put my hand up.

In fact it made me man up.

And finally make a change.

See the thing about life is that it's,
It's just too short, (it's just too short)

Leave the best behind and
Only then you'll find there's more to life that you first though.

Coz I,
I never ever, ever, ever though that it would ever get better.

Coz I,
I never ever, ever, ever though that it would ever get better.

See I,
I never ever, ever, ever though that i could face this weather,
But life, it will only get better, trust me it will only get better.

Coz I...

I didn't ever wanna sing this song again,
I didn't ever wanna sing this song again,

I didn't ever wanna sing this,
Ever wanna sing this song again.

And I..

i don't wanna walk this road again,
And i hate to be alone again.

I can hold my head high.

I'm strong again, I'm strong again.

Money made no change,
In fact it was more pain.

B's gone, Who's to blame ?
Look at all these youths today.
Rollin' Round with 38's.
Stickin' bredda's for the white.
Gold chains like, look i didn't mean to hurt you mate.
Back in the day I used to roll with like 30 mates,
Never had clean money.
Always had dirty plates.
Be it now, were Gridin' and washin' for like 30 days.
Now we make the year's annual,
Wage in like 30 days.
Coz I,
I never ever, ever, ever though that it would ever get better.
Coz I,
I never ever, ever, ever though that it would ever get better.
See I,
I never ever, ever, ever though that i could face this weather,
But life, it will only get better, trust me it will only get better.
Coz I...
I didn't ever wanna sing this song again,
I didn't ever wanna sing this song again,
I didn't ever wanna sing this,
Ever wanna sing this song again.
And I..
i don't wanna walk this road again,
And i hate to be alone again.
I can hold my head high.
I'm strong again, I'm strong again.
