

N-DUBZ, Wouldn't You

Na Na Naii
Oh Na Na Noww

[Tulisa]

[Verse 1]

Boy ive been seeing you for quite a while
And I gotta confess its best what you do to me
I need to tell you About the way youve changed my life
So many beautiful nights are the reason Youve got me staying all through the night
See the thing is..

[Chorus]

I dont quite understand What youre trying to say (straight up)
Can you make it clearer?
I just want you nearer See everyone around me keeps on saying that I must be blind (well they do have a point) Shut up!

All im tryin got say is that Wouldnt you wouldnt you like to have me to yourself
all to myself
all to yourself
what if I was to break your heart who would be dumb enough to lose all that I have got for you
all to myself
all to yourself
you've got to finish what you start haha I can give you that haha let me give you that hahahahaha
na na naii
oo na na noww

[Dappy]

I like when you wear them material things
But I like it more when you try my hat on with the strings
And do the impression on me when I say na na naii
I aint gonna lie no more you must have done a lot For the body and the back and the brain that youve got Its simple if I start I wont stop Youre so intelligent with such a high IQ
So if I ever have a baby id love it to be with you

[Faze]

The way she smiles at me every time she sees me its crazy
Im proud to call her my lady
Like daps said, she the type of I girl I wanna see holding my baby
And she dont get excited whenever my job pays me
But if im on the phone she dont act right
So I try to keep them well away
So I dont have to stop a catfight Cant say I never said I wasnt that type Truly you really confuse me
And thats why

[Chorus]

[Dappy]

Whatever what would a girl like you want from a rebel like me?
Got no money in the bank just stuck in a council estate ??

[Tulisa]

Together, were gonna be closer to the dream
Its like were just you and me so its up to you [chorus]
